

Summary

The sermon focuses on the significance of Epiphany, a season of revelation and light in the Christian calendar. It highlights the journey of the Magi, who followed a star to find Jesus, symbolizing the revelation of Christ to the world. The sermon emphasizes that God meets us where we are, drawing us into a journey to discover Him, and that we are part of a larger divine story. It encourages believers to be open to encountering Jesus in various ways and to be transformed by these encounters, becoming lights that lead others to Him.

Intro Prayer

Heavenly Father, as we gather today, we ask for Your presence to fill our hearts and minds. Open us to the revelations You have for us, just as You revealed Your Son to the Magi. May we be receptive to Your guidance and willing to follow the path You set before us. Amen.

Ice Breaker

What is one unexpected journey or adventure you've experienced in your life?

Key Verses

Isaiah 60:1-6

Matthew 2:1-12

Ephesians 2:10

Questions

- What does the season of Epiphany mean to you personally?
- How do you see God revealing Himself in your daily life?
- What can we learn from the journey of the Magi?
- Why is it significant that God meets us where we are?
- How can we be more open to encountering Jesus in unexpected ways?
- What role does the Word of God play in guiding us on our spiritual journey?
- How can we become a light to others, as the Magi were led by the star?
- What changes have you experienced after encountering Jesus in your life?

Life Application

This week, take time each day to reflect on how God is revealing Himself to you. Consider journaling these moments and how they might be guiding you on your journey with Him.

Key Takeaways

- Epiphany is a season of revelation and light.
- God meets us where we are and draws us into a journey to find Him.
- We are part of a larger divine story and have a purpose in God's plan.
- The Word of God is essential for understanding and encountering Jesus.
- Encountering Jesus transforms us and enables us to be a light to others.

Ending Prayer

Lord, thank You for the light of Your revelation in our lives. As we go forth, may we carry Your light into the world, guiding others to Your love and truth. Transform us through our encounters with You, and help us to live out our purpose in Your grand story. Amen.